RIPON COLLEGE

BARTLETT COTTAGE.

ALUMNI
—OF—
RIPON COLLEGE,
RIPON, WIS.

1867-1888.

IN the preparation of this first separate catalogue of the alumni of Rip-on College the purpose has been to give it a character between that of a mere list of names with degrees, honors, and residences; and that of a detailed history of the lives of alumni since their graduation. To carry out this purpose arbitrary rules have been necessarily adopted to determine whether certain items of information should be inserted. The committee may have erred in these rules, but they have applied them impartially to all items which came to hand.

Information for use in future editions of this catalogue, either concerning errors and omissions in this edition, or in relation to events which may occur hereafter, can be sent to the Registrar of the College; and such information is earnestly requested from all alumni and friends.
